Mayor's Office for Senior Citizens

COFFEE HOURS

Bringing older adults and City decision makers closer together to discuss issues of mutual concern

Coffee hours start at 10 a.m.

Thursday, February 18
Special Guest:
Kip Tokuda, Human Services Department

Kip Tokuda, acting director of the Human Services Department, has a long history of work in the human services arena. A former state legislator, he is a tireless advocate on behalf of children, individuals with developmental disabilities, and working families. He served as Director of Family and Youth Services in the Human Services Department during the last administration, and previously worked at the Washington State Department of Social and Health Services. Mr. Tokuda served on Mayor Mike McGinn's transition team and currently oversees the Mayor's search for a permanent Human Services Department director.
