33rd District State Senator Karen Keiser is a tireless advocate for improving health care. She sits on the Senate Health Care Committee, which she formerly chaired and served as ranking member while ushering in implementation of the Affordable Care Act at the state level. In addition, Senator Keiser chairs the Working Group of State Legislators for Health Reform, a group of legislators from across the U.S. working to implement health reform, and is a vice-chair of the National Conference of State Legislators Health Committee.

Liz Mercer, Washington State Office of the Insurance Commissioner, has provided training and technical assistance to Statewide Health Insurance Benefits Advisors (SHIBA) volunteers in King and Snohomish Counties for over eight years. Liz has over 25 years of experience promoting health care access, Medicaid, Medicare, and services for individuals with disabilities.

Note: Lunch tickets are required. The first 80 tickets cost $2 each—limit 2 per person.
After 80, tickets cost $6 each (no limit—must purchase by Thursday, July 3, for guaranteed seating.)
For tickets, call 253-856-5150.

The mission of the Seattle-King County Advisory Council for Aging & Disability Services is to identify the needs of older people and adults with disabilities in our community; advise on services to meet these needs; and advocate for local, state and national programs that promote quality of life for these populations. www.agingkingcounty.org/advisory-council
