Dear Friends,

We excited to invite you to our upcoming Housing Forum at the Issaquah Senior Center on September 8!

It's an opportunity for the community to gather and engage on the topic of housing while hearing from the King County Assessor. Our panel of experts will provide information on a variety of accessible programs that will allow older adults to age in place.

Multiple workshops and a resource fair are additional highlights of our event that will surely fit every need. Come early for refreshments and hear from former mayor, Ava Frisinger, as she opens this event. Be sure to stay to the very end and enjoy the art walk while tapping your foot and clapping your hands to live music by The Rovin' Fiddlers.

We've included event flyers for you to share with your networks and community partners to help spread the word. It will surely be an engaging, informative, and fun day!

If you have any questions, please contact us. We look forward to seeing you there!
