

Difficult Conversations Series:

Unlisted: A Story of Schizophrenia Movie and Discussion

Two Showings

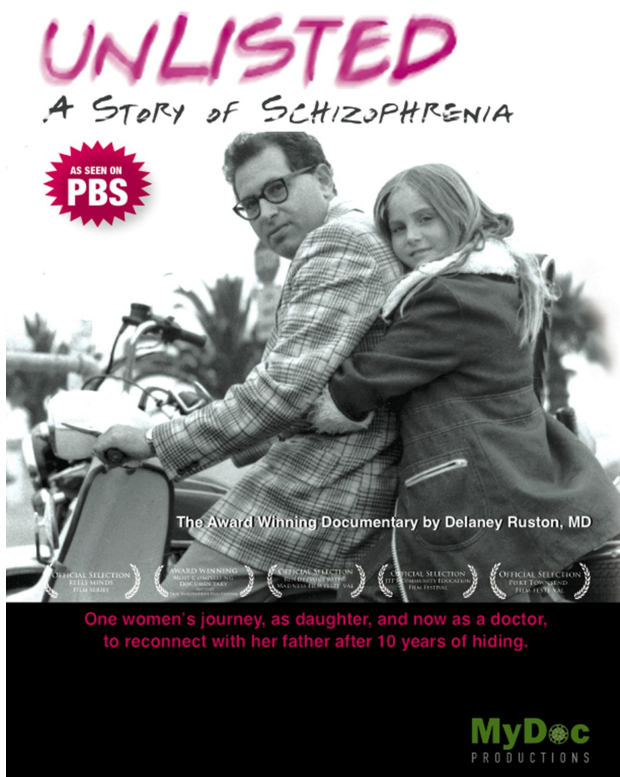

Tuesday, January 31 | Movie from 10:30-11:30am

Discussion after lunch, from 12:45-2pm

Greenwood Senior Center. Free.

Thursday, February 16 | 6:30-8:30pm

Phinney Neighborhood Center. Room 6. Free.

Why do we see so many severely mentally ill people on the street off treatment? Delaney has seen her paranoid schizophrenic father in this state and for 10 years hid from him. Unlisted depicts Delaney's journey, now as a doctor, to bring her father back into her life. Following the movie, GSC Social Worker Carin Mack (January 31) and NAMI Seattle Program Coordinator Katie Mahoney (February 16) will lead participants in a discussion exploring the themes of mental illness, family, and the nature of personal and societal responsibility.

For questions or to RSVP, please call Ariel at 206.297.0875, email arielb@phinneycenter.org or visit phinneycenter.org/classes

Difficult Conversations Series:

Unlisted: A Story of Schizophrenia Movie and Discussion

Two Showings

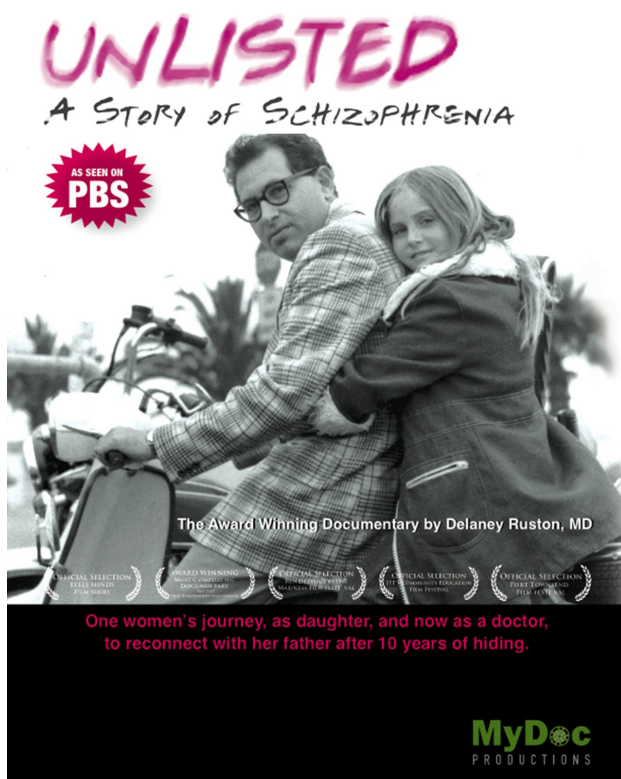

Tuesday, January 31 | Movie from 10:30-11:30am

Discussion after lunch, from 12:45-2pm

Greenwood Senior Center. Free.

Thursday, February 16 | 6:30-8:30pm

Phinney Neighborhood Center. Room 6. Free.

Why do we see so many severely mentally ill people on the street off treatment? Delaney has seen her paranoid schizophrenic father in this state and for 10 years hid from him. Unlisted depicts Delaney's journey, now as a doctor, to bring her father back into her life. Following the movie, GSC Social Worker Carin Mack (January 31) and NAMI Seattle Program Coordinator Katie Mahoney (February 16) will lead participants in a discussion exploring the themes of mental illness, family, and the nature of personal and societal responsibility.

For questions or to RSVP, please call Ariel at 206.297.0875, email arielb@phinneycenter.org or visit phinneycenter.org/classes

Difficult Conversations Series:

Unlisted: A Story of Schizophrenia Movie and Discussion

Two Showings

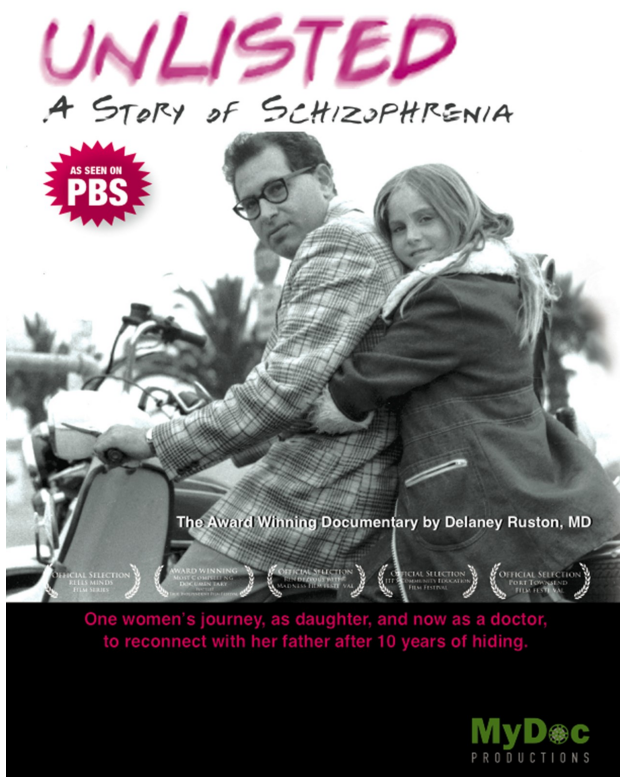

Tuesday, January 31 | Movie from 10:30-11:30am

Discussion after lunch, from 12:45-2pm

Greenwood Senior Center. Free.

Thursday, February 16 | 6:30-8:30pm

Phinney Neighborhood Center. Room 6. Free.

Why do we see so many severely mentally ill people on the street off treatment? Delaney has seen her paranoid schizophrenic father in this state and for 10 years hid from him. Unlisted depicts Delaney's journey, now as a doctor, to bring her father back into her life. Following the movie, GSC Social Worker Carin Mack (January 31) and NAMI Seattle Program Coordinator Katie Mahoney (February 16) will lead participants in a discussion exploring the themes of mental illness, family, and the nature of personal and societal responsibility.

For questions or to RSVP, please call Ariel at 206.297.0875, email arielb@phinneycenter.org or visit phinneycenter.org/classes

Difficult Conversations Series:

Unlisted: A Story of Schizophrenia Movie and Discussion

Two Showings

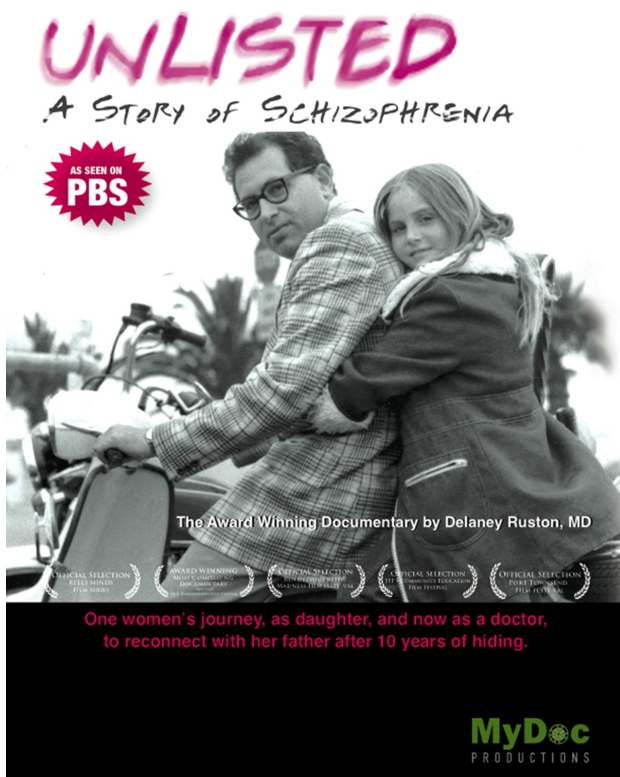

Tuesday, January 31 | Movie from 10:30-11:30am

Discussion after lunch, from 12:45-2pm

Greenwood Senior Center. Free.

Thursday, February 16 | 6:30-8:30pm

Phinney Neighborhood Center. Room 6. Free.

Why do we see so many severely mentally ill people on the street off treatment? Delaney has seen her paranoid schizophrenic father in this state and for 10 years hid from him. Unlisted depicts Delaney's journey, now as a doctor, to bring her father back into her life. Following the movie, GSC Social Worker Carin Mack (January 31) and NAMI Seattle Program Coordinator Katie Mahoney (February 16) will lead participants in a discussion exploring the themes of mental illness, family, and the nature of personal and societal responsibility.

For questions or to RSVP, please call Ariel at 206.297.0875, email arielb@phinneycenter.org or visit phinneycenter.org/classes