

Every four years, Aging and Disability Services (ADS) develops an Area Plan that describes its function as the local Area Agency on Aging, presents relevant demographic trends, and outlines the major goals and objectives to be achieved over the course of four years.

Save a Date!

The Area Plan 2024–2027 for King County is now in development. The first public draft will be ready for review in August, prior to the first public hearing (see below). Three public hearings are planned, at which ADS will receive feedback. Here are the dates:

- Public Hearing #1 (Renton)—Monday, August 14, at 10 a.m.: ADS Renton Office, Mt. St. Helens Conference Room (600 SW 39th St, Renton, WA 98057)
- Public Hearing #2 (North Bend)—Wednesday, August 23, at 11 a.m.: Mt Si Senior Center (411 Main Ave S, North Bend, WA 98045)
- Public Hearing #3 (Virtual)—Tuesday, September 5, at 10:30 a.m.: P&A Committee Meeting (virtual—to request log-on information, e-mail Karen.Winston@seattle.gov).

To request materials in an alternative format or to request accessibility information or an accommodation at one of the public hearings, e-mail Karen.Winston@seattle.gov at least five business days in advance.

Aging and Disability Services is a division of the Seattle Human Services Department, designated by the State of Washington as the Area Agency on Aging for Seattle and King County, and responsible for planning, coordinating, and advocating for a comprehensive service delivery system for older people, adults with disabilities, and family caregivers in King County.

AgingKingCounty.org/Area-Plan/