

African American Caregivers Forum

Legacy of Love

A unique, culturally-focused event that draws family caregivers from throughout the Pacific NW

REGISTER HERE

Legacy of Love 2026

Join us for the African American Caregivers Forum, an annual event during National Family Caregivers Month. Professionals and family caregivers come together to learn and share their challenges and joys in caring for loved ones. Come take part in celebrating and honoring the vital role of family caregivers in our communities!

Saturday, November 7, 2026

10 AM–3:30 PM

Museum of Flight, 9404 East Marginal Way S., Seattle, WA, 98108

PRE-REGISTER IN ADVANCE — Pre-register for this free event to receive updates and follow-up information: <https://tinyurl.com/caregiversforum2026>.

- Keynote presentation on dementia caregiving
- Aging Well panel on health promotion, end-of-life planning, and more
- Insurance and benefits Q&A featuring GUIDE, WA Cares, and Medicare
- Resource fair to learn more about caregiver services available to you
- Free admission to the Museum of Flight
- Enjoy a free delicious catered lunch and connect with others
- Win a raffle prize to take home!

Aging and Disability Services
Area Agency on Aging for Seattle and King County

Katie B. Wilson, Mayor
Seattle Human Services Department
Mayor's Council on African American Elders

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Janetta C. Brown, Certified Dementia Practitioner & Trainer

Dr. Janetta C. Brown is an award-winning engineer, researcher, and entrepreneur recognized by the National Institute on Aging as a global leader advancing diversity in aging research and health technology. Rooted in her family's own caregiving journey, she founded THE ARC to close the gap between rigorous dementia science and the everyday realities of families navigating diagnosis and care.

For more information or to request accessibility accommodations, please contact Sherry.Wu@seattle.gov or Eldad.Mekuria@seattle.gov.